Re: NEA v. West Las Vegas School District and Gene Parsons; PELRB No. 106-13

Dear parties:

On May 6, 2013 I informed the parties by letter that the amended PPC in this case was not facially adequate and gave the union five days in which to amend the complaint to correct that facial inadequacy. Although I received a phone call from Mr. Liebowitz explaining his intentions no amendment was received within the required time period. Therefore I am compelled to dismiss the PPC without prejudice as to any claims that may yet be timely failed and which are not duplicative of claims already pending in PELRB 105-13.

The Executive Director's decision to dismiss a complaint pursuant to NMAC 11.21.3.12 may be appealed to the Board under the procedure set forth in NMAC 11.21.3.13.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Griego
Executive Director, PELRB
